

ALL ORGANISATIONS HAVE AN IMPORTANT SECURITY CHALLENGE – WHAT’S YOURS?

Security and resilience are high on the agenda of most organisations. This is fine if you have the resource on hand to manage this key business area. Not all organisations have the expertise readily available to respond to security issues or perhaps a security challenge is delaying a key business objective and needs to be addressed. Key stakeholders may be looking for reassurance that pressing security concerns have been considered and appropriately dealt with. In the absence of security professionals, any number of departments could be seeking expert security advice but not have access to the assurance or guidance they need. This could harm commercial interests, delay projects or growth, or, through security failure, even risk the reputation and future of the organisation.

WORLD CLASS EXPERTISE WITH HIGH VALUE, COST EFFECTIVE SOLUTIONS

We know that sometimes organisations need a helping hand; a guide to help them progress or access to an expert they might not routinely have. We also know that every organisations issues or challenges are unique and any solutions need to answer that individuality. So we devised MySecuritySurgery, to allow businesses to get a day of expert help and support on a key security topic that is their current business challenge. Contained within a normal workday* your team will receive an oral summary and recommendations at the close, with the option of a written report for a small additional fee. The right people, in the right place, focused on solving your individual security challenge. All you need to do is choose one or two areas from the list below and call us to book your MySecuritySurgery day.
